The Principles and Practices of Real Estate for Salespersons requires sixty (60) clock hours of lecture. Provisions have been made to make up hours but no less than the required hours will be deemed eligible for testing for license. Student must be at least eighteen years of age, hold a high school diploma or equivalent and provide documentation of proof.

Training will begin on Jan. 10 and finish on Jan. 31, 2022

The student must complete all of the required time of six (6) hours of instruction per day, three (3) days per week for a total of three (3) weeks and one (1) day. The student may only make up three clock hours during the program.

All missed clock hours must be made up in before taking the midterm or final exam. This policy is subject to change per the instructor. A student absent for more than three (3) hours of classroom instruction will be placed on academic probation for the remainder of the program. Make up time must be completed and the academic record of the student must reflect a grade of 75% or higher in order to be eligible for a certificate of completion. If the student misses another clock hour after the allowed three (3) clock hours, they shall be dismissed.

A cumulative grade of 75% is based on: Quizzes: 20% Midterm: 30% Final Exam: 30%

There is no diploma awarded at the end of class but each student who graduates will be given a certificate of completion necessary to apply for the opportunity to take the Maryland Real Estate Licensing Exam. The exam is administered by Psychological Services Inc. and the fee is $61.00. We do not guarantee job placement or salary.

The cost for the program is $375.00 This consists of a tuition of $255.00, a non refundable administrative fee of $25 and the cost of the books of $95.00. Each student must have all materials and supplies, such as books, etc. at the start of the first class. No credit terms are available. All checks should be made out to the Maryland Real Estate Academy.

The books required to complete the class are Modern Real Estate 20th Edition, the workbook that accompanies the book and a copy of the Maryland Real Estate Practice and Law 15th edition. The books may be purchased from the school directly or on the open market.
